An-gels, dear,

9

Come draw near. — Come and sing, and we'll bring an of-fer-ing to our

13

King.

He could not lead the people well. Slow of speech, afraid to preach, God's words He could not tell. But God promised He would send an angel on before. Angels are leading us, too.

25

29

Daniel prayed and obeyed God's law before men's. So they threw

43

Dan-iel to the li-on's gloom-y den. An An-gel came to re-strain and

47

Guard him from all harm. An-gels are guard-ing us, too.

51

When I'm hurt, when I'm sick, when I need a friend; when things are not the 59

way that they should be, I look to Lord Je-sus Christ and 63

Call u-pon His name, and I feel His an-gels watch-ing o-ver me.

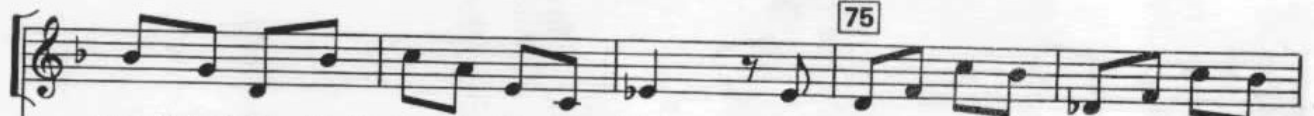

67

Shep-herds watched o'er their flocks in the fields at night. An an-gel then appeared to them, God's glo-ry shin-ing bright. The an-gel gave a spec-ial sign to guide them to the Christ. An-gels are guid-ing us, too.

71

75
